Dear Frank,

Thank you very much indeed for sending me the index of definitions ordered in strata, of Hjelmslev's Résumé. It must have taken you a long time to make it, and it is very useful. You should have published it with the book. - I have wondered how you have managed to set up a definite number of strata, and I wonder whether Hjelmslev has ever done something similar, when he worked with the definitions.

I have just been two weeks in Oswego to take part in the LSA meeting and give a talk on Danish Linguistics.

But I had to get home soon in order to prepare the term and to do some planned work on ENG with Rischel. Ohala asked me to come to Berkeley, but I had to postpone it. However, I am coming to the States again in the early ~~xxxxxx~~ spring, and hope to come to Berkeley at that time.

I hope you both are in tolerable health (to wish more would probably be too unrealistic). -

Best regards

Li
