Dear Roman,

I am very sorry to know that our Swedish colleagues have not succeeded in proposing you for the chair of Slavonic Philology in Stockholm.

I should like to call your attention to the fact that in Leyden there is no successor to van Wijk, and I happen to know that they are searching for a foreigner to take his chair. If this possibility is of any interest to you, it might be useful to apply personally to Professor F. B. J. Kuiper, 316 Rijnsburgerweg, Leyden. You may tell him that you know from me he has been writing to Stander-Petersen about it.

Considering that you have not informed me about your personal plans for the future, it is with some hesitation that I interfere in these affairs. I am sure you will understand that I only do it in order to help you if necessary.

Best wishes.

Yours#ever,
