sleeping murmur

dark bosom of mine -
god has taken his seat in my dark bosom -
o world, let god live - o world -

the voice, against which I always have to listen, the voice is telling me, incessantly that a world of burning secrets is to find
there
there in the deep, where god has pleased to crouch in the soft silence
of life -

people of the world,
I want to death, that you should long towards the dark spreading deep, towards the dark unknown soil in the bosom of mine -
people of the world,
go and tell me,
what is in the dark unknown bosom of mine -

god is nourishing on my joy and my sorrow -
people of the world,
I beseech you, give
to me an eternal life -!
people of the world,
let god live -!
people of the world,
forget yourself, and give your children to drink the milk of the sun, the innumerable secrets of the fire, and god's heart of lust -

people of the world -!
go and tell me,
dark bosom of mine -
forget yourself and
give to your children
the fulfilling,
eternally waiting deep, where god crouches in waiting silence of life -
