the special miracle

every night he was tired, and every day he did as he was told - and without alarm he grew thirty years old - and rather alone -

then one night he was not sleepy, and that night he thought, that something

and got together with a woman, he knew, and late in the evening he got caught - quietly, without alarm - and after a time came back - and by day he did as he was told - and together with the woman, he knew, he quietly grew sixty

when speaking of life,
