leaving

⌘ don't believe
one more word from any lips -
all words are poisoned - only believe
what your eyes will love, and your fingers want to touch - there is a great sleep still rising in all nature - seek your rest there -
then
your eyes can't be deceived,
then
your eyes shall know their love and their enemy without question, and your fingers shall unlock never-opened doors, which must be opened -
and then your soul will have no more goals and no more words wherewith to build evil walls, wherewith to make unclean arms - there is still the great sleep waiting -
