the weapon

hunger has left me - love has left me - longing for events is not with me - misfortune has found me out - but joy cannot slay -, and the love, you find, cannot slay -, if I held a weapon, that could hit by itself -! but hunger has left me - and love has left me - no longing is with me now - it must come by itself - or stay away -

the green, the warm,
the weapon,
which need not hit -
