Dear Professor Weinreich, Please find enclosed my proofs, and please excuse the delay. I had submitted my manuscript to a few colleagues for comment, and their remarks made me consider certain alterations, and this took me some time to decide. You will see that after all I have entered very few alterations. Although the printer has done excellent work as a whole, there are quite a number of misprints. I wonder whether there will be time to send me a second proof; I can send it back to you by air-mail immediately. Or would you take the trouble May I call your attention particularly to the table on galley 7: the signs I want are:

to control the corrections?

T

It is of course

The printer is, I think, sure to have them, extremely important that there should be no errors in the formulae.

Best greetings, and kind regards.

Yours,

Louis Hjelmslev.
